Every Day in Every Way.™

Changes in family structure through dissolution of marriage, custody modifications and remarriage are difficult experiences for a child.

What is Children in the Middle?

“Children in the Middle” is a class providing education and affirmation for parents, with the primary focus on children’s needs, at all ages. REQUIRED by the Domestic Relations Code of Iowa, the program is conducted by qualified professionals from Mercy Behavioral Health.

Though required for parents involved in custody matters, this seminar is open to the public and is suitable for grandparents and step-parents.

After attending the full session, participants receive a certificate of attendance.

Topics

- Skills for parenting from two separate households
- Age-specific needs of children
- Healthy vs. problematic reactions of children
- Identifying how children feel
- Identifying no-win situations children may be in and how to avoid them

Registration Information

Attendance is required for both parties in dissolution of marriage. They may attend together or separately. Pre-registration is required.

Registration options:

- Register online at: www.mercydesmoines.org
- Call Mercy Nurse at (515) 643-2584
- Mail the attached registration form and enclose payment to Mercy Nurse

Cost

- $35/parent
- $15 for other family members/significant others (only parents will receive certificate)
